Pinnacle Bank Appoints Al Pinheiro to Board of Directors

GILROY, CA, June 13, 2008 – Pinnacle Bank (OTCBB:PBNK) is pleased to announce that Gilroy Mayor Al Pinheiro has been appointed to its Board of Directors.

"Mr. Pinheiro was one of the visionaries who played an integral role in founding the Bank and we are now very excited that he is joining his neighbors and fellow community leaders as a Director," said President and Chief Executive Officer Susan K. Black. "His knowledge and commitment to the Gilroy community and unparalleled service in the region will further strengthen our community bank."

A Gilroy resident of 44 years, Pinheiro is currently serving his 2nd term as mayor of the city, while continuing to grow the insurance agency he established in 1976. He is also president of the Santa Clara County Cities Association and sits on the Gilroy Economic Development Board and Gilroy Downtown Association Board. With his extensive community service background, Pinheiro has previously served as a member of the Gilroy City Council, chair of the Gilroy Planning Commission, and president of Gilroy Chamber of Commerce.

"I'm honored to join this prestigious group of individuals in working to build an outstanding financial institution for our local communities," said Pinheiro. "I believe Pinnacle Bank is a great place to bank, a great place to work and a wonderful resource for the communities it serves."
