Mayra Marquez joins Pinnacle Bank as Senior Vice President, Senior Relationship Manager

GILROY, CA, April 19, 2021 –Pinnacle Bank (OTCQB: PBNK) headquartered in Gilroy, CA announced today that Mayra Marquez has joined the bank as Senior Vice President, Senior Relationship Manager.

“We are pleased to announce that Mayra Marquez has joined the Pinnacle Bank team of professional bankers. Mayra will be focusing on deepening our footprint in South County while also assisting with new business relationships in Silicon Valley,” stated Doug Moffat, Regional Vice President.

Ms. Marquez brings over 21 years of banking experience with her to Pinnacle Bank. She began her career with Comerica Bank as a lending assistant. In 2006 she joined Focus Business Bank as a relationship manager and credit analyst. She was previously with Wells Fargo Bank as a senior relationship manager with a portfolio of over $100 million.

“I am so excited to join Pinnacle Bank. I wanted to get back to my roots of building relationships with my clients and I knew that the Bank had a reputation in the industry of putting their clients first. They believe in providing personal touch banking and working to provide the best banking solution for all involved. I look forward to assisting the team with expanding business both in South County and Silicon Valley,” stated Ms. Marquez.
